

Date of completion	June 2009
Principal Advisor	Professor Jacqueline Zinn
Other References	Professors William Aaronson, Michael Rosko and John Deckop
PhD Candidacy	May 2008

Areas of Research Interest

Hospital Industry
Health Care Delivery Forms
Organizational Ecology
Organizational Change
Geographical Variations in Health Services
Evolution of Health Care Organizations
Satisfaction with hospital services of parents of children with disabilities

Professional Experience

Department of Health Services Research, Management, and Policy

College of Public Health and Health Professions, University of Florida, August 2009- present
Assistant Professor (Tenure Track)

- Teaches “Introduction to the Management of Health Services Organizations” in the Master of Public Health (MPH) program
- Teaches “Health Care Strategic Management” in the MHA program of Health Services Research, Management and Policy

Department of Human Resource Management, Temple University (Summer 2008)

Adjunct Professor of the course “Communicating in Organizations”

Department of Risk, Insurance and Health Care Management, Temple University (2007)

Co-instructor of the course “Introduction to Health Care Management”

Research Experience

Graduate Assistant, Institute on Disabilities, Temple University (PA) (2008-2009)
Graduate Assistant, Social Science Data Library, Temple University (PA) (2007-2008)
Research Assistant, Department of Risk, Insurance, and Health Care Management, Temple University (PA) (2006-2007)
Graduate Extern, Department of Public Health, Temple University (PA) (2005-2006)
Research Assistant, Department of Public Health, American University of Beirut (Lebanon) (2003-2004)

Manuscripts Under Review

Al-Amin, M., Zinn, J., Rosko, M., and Aaronson, W. Is the Proliferation of Specialty Hospitals a Self Limiting Phenomenon? Under review by Health Care Management Review.

Al-Amin, Zinn, J., Rosko, M., and Aaronson, W. General Hospital Closure and Specialty Hospital Proliferation: A Longitudinal Analysis. Under review by Inquiry.

Manuscripts in Preparation

“Is the General Community Hospital a Long Standing Model”, in progress

“Environmental Forces and the Proliferation of Specialty Hospitals in Texas”, in progress

Invited Book Chapters Submission

Al-Amin, M. Enhancing the Cultural Competence of Health Care Workers. In T. Yaeger and P. Sorenson (Ed), Organization Development in Healthcare: A Guide for Leaders. Information Age Publishing. (Work under development)

Conference Presentations

“Resource Partitioning and the Proliferation of Specialty Hospitals”. M. Al-Amin with M. Rosko (poster session). Academy Health Annual Research Meeting. Washington, DC, June 8-10, 2008.

“Geocoding Intracranial Hemorrhage Patients in an Academic Hospital”. M. Al-Amin with Y. Gu, D. Ford, M. Silva, and M. Jacobson. Neurocritical Care Society 6th Annual Meeting, Miami, FL, October 23-25, 2008.

Awards

Nominated for Dissertation Completion Grant at Temple University 2009

Affiliations

Academy Health (since 2007)

Academy of Management (since 2007)

Southern Academy of Management (since 2009)

Service

Profession

Reviewer for Journal of Health Care for the Poor and Underserved since 2008

Reviewer for Academy of Management Annual Meeting since 2008

Reviewer for Journal of International Management since 2007

Member, Health Care Management Division at the Academy of Management

Teaching Committee since 2009

University

Member, College of Public Health and Health Professions Research Committee
(2009-2010)

Member, Department of Health Service Research, Management, and Policy PhD
Committee (2009-2010)